COMMENDED STUDENTS IN THE 2018 National Merit Scholarship Program

Pasco, Washington, September 27, 2017: The principal, Arlene Jones of Tri-Cities Prep Catholic High School announced today that Colby Richards and Evan Sweeney have been named Commended Students in the 2018 National Merit Scholarship Program. A Letter of Commendation from the school and National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC), which conducts the program, will be presented by the principal to these scholastically talented seniors.

About 34,000 Commended Students throughout the nation are being recognized for their exceptional academic promise. Although they will not continue in the 2018 competition for National Merit Scholarships awards, Commended Students placed among the top 50,000 scorers of more than 1.6 million students who entered the 2018 competition by taking the 2016 Preliminary SAT/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT®).

"The young men and women being named Commended Students have demonstrated outstanding potential for academic success," commented a spokesperson for NMSC. "These students represent a valuable national resource: recognizing their accomplishments, as well as the key role their schools play in their academic development, is vital to the advancement of educational excellence in our nation. We hope that this recognition will help broaden their educational opportunities and encourage them as they continue their pursuit of academic success."

Tri-Cities Prep is an independent, college-preparatory, Catholic High School dedicated to providing the highest quality academic instruction in a faith-centered environment. Guided by the Gospel values of love and justice, students from all faiths and backgrounds are challenged to critically seek the truth and dedicate themselves to the improvement of their community and the service to others.

For nearly twenty years, Tri-Cities Prep has offered challenging academics within an environment that provides care for the whole student. Our aim is to form women and men of character, competence, and compassion who are prepared to lead humbly and serve generously.
